

International Organization for Migration (IOM)

Call for Applications

Reference Code: ROBKK-VA2018-03

Position Title: Emergency and Post Crisis Intern

Duty Station: Bangkok, Thailand

Type of Appointment: Internship Contract, 6 months

Closing Date of Vacancy: Open

Established in 1951, the International Organization for Migration (IOM) is the principal intergovernmental organization in the field of migration and works closely with governmental, intergovernmental and non-governmental partners. IOM is dedicated to promoting humane and orderly migration for the benefit of all. It does so by providing services and advice to governments and migrants.

Context

IOM works in the five broad areas of migration management: migration and development, facilitating migration, regulating migration, addressing forced migration, and the implications of climate change on migration. Cross-cutting activities include the promotion of international migration law, policy debate and guidance, protection of migrants' rights, migration health and the gender dimension of migration.

The key responsibility of the Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific (ROAP) is to formulate regional strategies and plans of action and to provide programmatic and administrative support to the countries within its region. Several Regional Thematic Units are based at the ROAP to fulfill this responsibility.

The Emergency and Post Crisis (EPC) Unit in the ROAP focuses on ensuring IOM Missions in Asia and the Pacific are prepared to respond to Migration Crisis needs, aid decision-making related to humanitarian affairs, and strengthens partnerships with other organizations within and outside of the humanitarian architecture. The unit also includes a dedicated Information Management function focused on mobility tracking and operational data gathering and analysis in areas of forced migration and complex mobility issues (Displacement Tracking Matrix (DTM) Section). This announcement is a request for CVs/expression of interest for an internship opening to support the EPC Unit.

Scope of Work

Under the direct supervision of the Sr. Regional Officer for EPC or his/her designate in the IOM ROAP, the incumbent will be assigned, but not limited to, the following tasks:

1. Assist in researching and drafting papers, reports and memoranda describing and analyzing IOM's Humanitarian responses and activities in the region.
2. Monitor day-to-day policy developments and debates within the partner institutions and organizations, and provide information to the EPC Unit accordingly.
3. Aid in the development of relevant information databases and tools including but not limited to projects, sector related activities, mapping, and software tools.
4. Support the management of social media, web, and online learning sites relating the emergency response and institutional capacity building
5. Assist in organizing meetings, seminars and high-level missions as needed.
6. Provide administrative support as required.
