Call for Applications

Position Title: Intern (Emergency and Post Crisis - EPC)
Duty Station: Bangkok, Thailand/ Homebased (if travel not permitted)
Type of Appointment: Internship Contract, 6 months
Closing Date of Vacancy: 23 January 2022
Expected Start Date: February 2022

Established in 1951, IOM is a Related Organization of the United Nations, and as the leading UN agency in the field of migration, works closely with governmental, intergovernmental and non-governmental partners. IOM is dedicated to promoting humane and orderly migration for the benefit of all. It does so by providing services and advice to governments, the private sector, and migrants.

Context

IOM works in the five broad areas of migration management: migration and development, facilitating migration, regulating migration, addressing forced migration, and the implications of climate change on migration. Cross-cutting activities include the promotion of international migration law, policy debate and guidance, protection of migrants' rights, migration health and the gender dimension of migration. The key responsibility of the Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific (ROAP) is to formulate regional strategies and plans of action and to provide programmatic and administrative support to the countries within its region. Several Regional Thematic Units are based at the ROAP to fulfill this responsibility.

The Emergency and Post Crisis (EPC) Unit in the ROAP focuses on ensuring IOM Missions in Asia and the Pacific are prepared to respond to Migration Crisis needs, aid decision-making related to humanitarian affairs, and strengthens partnerships with other organizations within and outside of the humanitarian architecture.

The unit also includes a dedicated Information Management function focused on mobility tracking and operational data gathering and analysis in areas of forced migration and complex mobility issues (Displacement Tracking Matrix (DTM) Section).

Supervision

Working under the direct supervision of the Senior Regional Emergency and Post Crisis Specialist in IOM Regional Office for the Asia and the Pacific in Bangkok the intern will support the EPC unit for smooth implementation of ongoing work.

Core Functions/Responsibilities:

The successful candidate will have the following duties and responsibilities:

1. Assist in researching and drafting papers, reports and memoranda describing and analyzing IOM's Humanitarian responses and activities in the region.
2. Coordinate with IOM's data analysis and information management teams to analyze data and generate situation reports and other information products related to regional emergency and post-crisis trends and IOM humanitarian programming in the region.
3. Monitor day-to-day policy developments and debates within partner institutions and organizations and provide information to the EPC Unit accordingly.
